Action Taken:

This supplemental report is submitted to document my investigative and support actions related to the school shooting on December 14, 2012 at the Sandy Hook Elementary School 12 Dickinson Road Newtown, CT.

On Friday, December 14, 2012, I was assigned as the Executive Officer at the Connecticut State Police Training Academy in Meriden, CT. Upon hearing of the incident, I coordinated with Commanding Officer Captain Stephen Castagliuolo to coordinate support efforts from the Academy. At approximately 1230 hours, I was contacted by Trooper First Class Kathleen Henry from Support Services and asked to provide a passenger van for transportation of clergy from their muster point at Troop A Southbury to the Sandy Hook Fire House. I assigned Sergeant Eric Dency this detail. Sergeant Dency was relieved from duty at approximately 1700 hours.

On Saturday, December 15, 2012, I was assigned by Captain Castagliuolo to assign and coordinate response from any and all available Academy Staff personnel who would be assigned traffic and other support details. As it evolved, some Acaceemy Staff members were eventually assigned as family liaisons for families of decedants. These troopers included Trooper Dawn Taylor, assigned December 14, 2012 to the family of Ann Marie Murphy; Trooper Joseph O'Connell, assigned December 15, 2012 to the family of Lauren Rousseau; Trooper First Class 01 02, assigned December 15, 2012 to the family of 01 02 03 12; and Trooper 01 02, assigned December 17, 2012 to the family of 01 02 03 12.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY-
INVESTIGATION REPORT (DPS-302-E) (REVISED 2/3/06)

Other Academy Staff personnel were assigned traffic post and building security details throughout the weekend, to include Sergeant Eric Dency at the school from December 16, 2012 through December 21, 2012, where he eventually assisted Western District Major Crime personnel with evidence collection, preservation and return.

On Sunday, December 16, 2012, I reported to Sandy Hook and initially supervised a traffic post at the interchange of exit 10 from Interstate 84 Westbound. I eventually reported to the Executive Command Post at the Sandy Hook Volunteer Firehouse. I was assigned support duty for communication and scene security at the school commencing December 17, 2012.

On Monday December 17, 2012 at approximately 0700 hours, I reported back to the Executive Command Post and assigned support duty for communication and scene security at the school by Major Brian Meraviglia. I maintained a post at the front of the Sandy Hook Elementary School with sergenat Dency from approximately 0800 hours until approximately 1130 hours. At approximately 1200 hours, I was assigned by Major Brian McLean to assist him in supervising the movement of property from the rooms not directly involved with the shooting in the Sandy Hook Elementary School. The personal property of teachers and staff was personally secured by Major McLean and me, while workers from the moving company were supervised by State Police personnel as they secured all remaining property in a systematic manner, to be moved to the Chalk Hill School in Monroe, CT. Troopers assigned to this detail were Trooper First Class Kevin Mulry and Trooper Joseph O'Connell.

With plastic moving bins obtained from the moving company, and utilizing a school faculty roster with room assignments, Major McLean and I systematically secured any valuable property located within an obvious faulty area (desk, private closet). Each room was assigned an individual bin and, where possible, names of faculty were annotated where multiple faculty belongings were located in a room. Each bin was then marked by room number. Valuables were determined to be jackets, keys, wallets, cellular phones, pocket books, cameras, tablet-type computers, shoes, family photographs and various other items. All remaining personal effects were to be secured and marked by private moving personnel to be retrieved at Chalk Hill School at a date and time to be determined by Newtown School Officials. This included securing separately all jackets, bags and lunch boxes of students. Upon completion of a room, Major McLean or I would mark the room with a moving sticker so as to notify the private movers of our completion of securing faculty property.

Beginning at Room 53 and ending at Room 5, Major McLean and I searched every opened room, lounge area and closet, and secured several items belonging to faculty members. Items recovered were recorded on yellow legal paper by hand and later transposed on yellow legal paper to reflect ascending room numbers. Rooms designated to be part of the immediate crime scene were processed by WDMCS personnel and were temporarily cordoned off. Upon completing this assignment at approximately 1630 hours, Major McLean and I escorted a designated moving truck assigned solely to transport these belongings to the Sandy Hook Firehouse, where they were stored on tables in the rear bay. This area was designated as the area for surviving faculty and staff and family members of deceased staff to retrieve this property.

Upon completion of the transport of property to the Sandy Hook Firehouse, it was coordinated through Newtown School officials to have these items retrieved on December 17, 2012 from 1800 until 2000 hours; December 18, 2012 from 0800 until 2000 hours; and as needed on following dates. Upon commencing property return duties, I was assigned Detectives Daniel DeJesus and James Nolting from Central District Major Crime Squad (CDMCS) to assist me. Also aiding in this assignment were Lieutenants Leon Pierce and Mark Cassista from the Bureau of Criminal Investigations (BCI). I obtained a Return of Property Form created for this investigation from Lieutenant David DelVecchia (WDMCS), and utilized it for each return. These forms are submitted with this supplemental report. In addition, room tags, from each bin that contained property that was returned to its owner, were recovered and maintained with this list. These forms contain detailed descriptions of items generically listed below.

The following is a breakdown of return by room in chronological order with room number, property recovered, owner, claimant and time:

Table with 5 columns: Room Number, Property recovered, Owner, Claimant, Date and time. Rows list items like Camera, purse, sweatshirt, I-pad, etc., with corresponding owner and claimant information.
