Action Taken: On 12/14/12, this Detective was approached by [REDACTED] 04, 03, regarding her unsecured personal vehicle and belongings. [REDACTED] 04 explained that she was the parent of students at Sandy Hook Elementary School, and advised that her vehicle was currently unsecured in the S.H.E.S. lot, with the windows open and the keys still in the ignition. [REDACTED] 04 relayed that furthermore, she wanted to [REDACTED] 04 to escape the media and crowds that were flooding the town, but that her purse, as well as her husband's wallet, were on the front seat of the vehicle, and they had no access to money or identification without them. [REDACTED] 04 relayed that she had arrived at the school only after learning of the incident and had exited the vehicle rapidly and then had gone straight to the firehouse with none of what she needed in order to leave for the weekend.

[REDACTED] 04 relayed the registration plate of her vehicle to be [REDACTED] 04, and described the vehicle as being an [REDACTED] 04.

On 12/14/12, this Detective and Trooper Colburn #1093 responded to the parking lot and observed [REDACTED] 04 vehicle to be parked, unsecured, as described. This Detective retrieved [REDACTED] 04 purse, and her husband's wallet, as described, rolled up the windows and locked the vehicle.

This Detective returned to the Sandy Hook firehouse and returned the purse, wallet and vehicle keys to [REDACTED] 04 who was asked to check the contents, including the credit cards and money in the wallet, to ensure that they were as she had left them. [REDACTED] 04 did so and upon confirming that the contents were all there, signed a DPS-633-C, Witness Statement form, attesting to the fact that she had checked over and taken possession of the requested items (see attached).
