Action Taken: On 12/27/12 at approximately 1030 hours, this Detective responded to 75 West Street, Danbury, CT, and met with Forensic Interviewer Donna Meyer in preparation for the voluntary 11 a.m. Forensic Interview of 01 02 03 12

It was explained to Meyer that 01 02 03 12 in the Sandy Hook Elementary School, which was the 1st grade classroom of teacher 01 02 03 12. Meyer and this Detective reviewed a school map and the path of travel for the shooter was shown to Meyer. Additionally, any information pertaining to 01 02 03 12 that may have been helpful for the interview, inclusive of statements she had made to other teachers or staff members, were relayed to Meyer.

On 12/27/12, this Detective and Meyer met with 01 02 03 12 and her parents 01 02 03 12, and discussed the goals of the interview, in addition to relaying that this interview would be terminated if 01 02 03 12 showed any signs of decompensation or any revived signs of trauma. It was clearly explained to the 01 02 03 12 that this interview was being conducted because they felt it was in the best interests of their daughter, and that the investigation would still be thorough even without the interview of their daughter.

01 02 03 12 stated that they were comfortable with moving forward and asked if they could be with 01 02 03 12 if she asked for them, at which time they were told that if 01 02 03 12 wanted them, or was exhibiting any signs of anxiety, the interview would be concluded by telling her that she didn't need to try to remember or talk about anything else, and they would be immediately reunited.

01 02 03 12 relayed that they, and the other parents, felt at a disadvantage and had a "need to know" what their children had experienced or saw, and were struggling with how they can help their child to process and heal when only the police know whether what they are recalling is accurate. It was expressed that in addition, some of the trauma personnel that various families had seen also were struggling with how to help or redirect the children, as there is no surviving adult to validate their recollections.

This Detective showed the 01 02 03 12 the simplified map of the entrance to the school and the 1st grade hallway and very simply stated and showed them that what was known at this time is that the shooter entered the lobby through the front glass area of the school, and ultimately walked to the left into the first grade wing, entering and shooting in both Rooms #8 and #10. It was explained that both the principal and school psychologist had been shot and killed in the hallway near the main entrance, and that we, as the police, were unsure as to what doorway many of the children had exited, and therefore cannot state for sure which students would have seen those victims.
