On 12-14-2012, I responded to the scene of a school shooting at the Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, CT. Among other assignments and responsibilities, I assisted in obtaining a written and verbal statement from [REDACTED] 04, 03 a [REDACTED] 04 teacher from room #04

In a verbal and written statement from [REDACTED] 04, she related the following; While in the classroom at approximately 9:35 a.m., she heard the intercom come on. She heard what sounded like kids screaming and other yelling, crying and squealing. She also heard loud banging and knocking what she later learned were gunshots. Early on during the incident, she was in the hallway and heard from the teacher next to her room, [REDACTED] 04 who was trying to lock her door, the school was in lockdown. [REDACTED] 04 called "911" and was told by the dispatcher, there was an active shooter in the school. [REDACTED] 04 closed her blinds, blackened the doors and windows and locked the door. Everyone in the room huddled around each other in the corner of the room. She then heard voices yelling "State Police". At about 10:00 a.m., a group of about five State Troopers came to her door and escorted everyone out of the classroom to the fire house. At no time during or prior to the incident did [REDACTED] 04 hear or see anybody or anything related to the shooting. [REDACTED] 04 did not see any of the victims or the shooter. Refer to attached statement.
