INTERVIEW OF 01 02 03 12

On 12/14/12 at approximately 1130 members of the Fairfield Police Department Detective Bureau responded to the Newtown Police department to assist them after a report of a school shooting at the Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown.

We were asked by the Newtown Police to speak with some of the students who may have witnessed the shooter inside Sandy Hook School. We were told that the students were all in the care of their respective parents at the police department. Newtown Police requested that the students/witnesses be interviewed promptly to confirm or deny rumors that there was a second shooter who fled the scene. Connecticut State Police Sgt. Mike DeCesare along with Fairfield Detective Lieutenant Mike Gagner, Sgt. Tony Granata and Detectives Alex Fucci, Belinda Papageorge and myself began to the interviews of the children who all were willing to speak with us in the presence of their respective parents.

Detective Papageorge and I interviewed 01 02 03 12

01 02 03 12 stated that he is a 01 02 03 12 class at Sandy Hook Elementary School and their day began as usual, they were in the middle of "sharing" when they heard very loud "banging". At this point 04 told us all to move to the back corner of the room and she locked the door and called the Police. 04 then put a piece of white paper over the window so that no one could see into the classroom. 01 02 03 12 said that his classroom is in the back of the school and 01 02 03 12 is in the front of the school.

01 02 03 12 said that he heard giant thumping like bigfoot was crushing the school and then we heard a woman scream "don't shoot" over the loudspeaker which was turned "on". 04 then yelled "don't shoot". A little while later the Police knocked on our door and got us to the Firehouse.
