Sergeant Signore and I, who traveled together, arrived at approximately 1000 at the Sandy Hook Fire Department, which is located near the Sandy Hook Elementary School. Sergeant Signore and I then proceeded to the Elementary School and found the EMS triage area located in the school parking lot. Just next to the triage area another Officer was speaking with a white male wearing a brown jacket. As we interviewed this male he explained to us that he had no reason to be here at the school and stated, "I guess I shouldn't be here I have no reason to be, I think I got too close", "I followed the flashing lights and I wanted to see what was going on". This individual was detained and brought to State Police Troopers near the Sandy Hook Fire House to be further interviewed. Sergeant Signore and I then went back to the Elementary School to assist with securing the scene. We assisted Newtown Officers search the parking lot / check vehicles.
