Consent for Online Identity

ACTION TAKEN: On Friday, February 15, 2013, at approximately 1200 hours, I spoke to attorney Michael English regarding an online account that Adam Lanza had created through an online storage company called MediaFire. Based on the content found under Adam Lanza's MediaFire account, investigators concluded that it was best to have the account removed. Therefore, AUSA Edward Chang of the United States Attorney's Office drafted a consent form pertaining to said MediaFire account which was subsequently forwarded to me. I explained to Attorney English that we were requesting the consent form be signed by Peter Lanza on behalf of his son Adam. I then emailed attorney English at menglish@fdh.com a "Consent to Assume Online Identity" form which contained the MediaFire account information. Attorney English advised me that he would meet with Peter Lanza as soon as possible and present the form to him.

At approximately 1415 hours, attorney Michael English contacted me and advised me that his client Peter Lanza signed the form as requested. He then emailed me a copy of said form which he also signed as a witness.

Refer to attached Consent to Assume Online Identity form for further details.
